

Senior SW Design Engineer / SW Architect

Are you able to look at the big picture, simplify and explain technical concepts to uninitiated team mates or customers?

Are you a technologist at heart not afraid to explore and propose new technical solutions, get your hands dirty with code or installing product to customer systems?

If you think you have the right balance of skills, can do attitude, innovative thinker we might be the next team you're looking for to join!

Responsibilities

- Design, Develop and Test SW Products and System Integration solutions.
- Support their installation and troubleshooting on customer site when required.
- Produce & maintain technical documentation to support development and Customer cases.
- Support the Product Owners in managing internal and external expectations for project deliverables and products planning.
- Support and implement Software Engineering and Testing improvement initiatives when required.

Desired Skills and Experience

- Have a solid educational foundation through a Engineering/Computer Science degree and being a technologist at heart.
- Proven track record in successfully working in IT/Telecom projects.
- Proven understanding of SW Development, SW Engineering, Quality Assurance practices
- Compelling communicator with both tech & non-tech audiences
- International experience, fluent written and spoken English (Finnish is a plus) language skills are required.
- Ability to work under pressure and with strict deadlines.
- Ability to travel to customer premises when required by the project.

Each of the following will be considered a plus

- Knowledge of: C#, Java, Node JS, Javascript, Python/PHP, Database(Oracle, Postgres), Linux, Windows, Networking troubleshooting, Cloud Technologies.
- Working experience in small organizations is a plus as it helps you understand our culture and way of working.
- TETRA, Positioning.
- Finnish language skills.